Land with 10.000m2 with bungalow project - Prazeres, Madeira Island

Located in the parish of Prazeres, known for its tranquility and beautiful landscapes, the 10,000m² plot offers a unique opportunity for investment in one of the most sought-after destinations on the island of Madeira. Prazeres is prized for its serene atmosphere and proximity to natural attractions such as hiking trails and panoramic views of the Atlantic.

The land has a slight slope, ideal for construction and taking advantage of the natural view. Part of the land is flat, facilitating the implementation of the project.
Easy access by paved road, with good connections to the main roads in the region, ensuring efficient connectivity for future residents and visitors.

The land has an approved project for the construction of a set of bungalows, offering an excellent opportunity for tourist or residential development.
